

A compass, not a map

USC's winding journey to a whole of university student governance structure

Shared vision

Be guided by best practice principles

Calibrate your lens to your university's vision and values

Keep the vision in sight at all times

High level support

Seek champions

The higher the better

This will help you create and drive strategic and cultural change

Difficult conversations

Be brave

Examine your privilege

Listen and empathise

Proactive communication

Check in with your stakeholders

Anticipate opposition – we are disruptors!

Communicate the value proposition

Stay positive

Celebrate small wins

Use the principles, your vision and your champions as touchstones and guides

Practice gratitude
